Sydney College of English (SCE)

A Great Place to learn

SCE has always had a reputation of providing quality English language teaching, and now in 2008 it is providing even more for its students. SCE has introduced a new innovative timetable that allows students to study the areas they feel they need to focus on, or have an interest in. Already SCE offers 6 levels of English language, and 13 sublevels of tuition, but now there is also a much wider choice of afternoon classes, from focussing on improving skills such as listening and speaking, to Academic programmes in IELTS and TOEIC to courses of special interest in Tourism, Business or Medical English. The choice is yours.

Courses:

Super Intensive (27.5 hours per week <includes 5 hours optional Self Access>), Intensive English (20 hours per week). Both of these include SuperEnglish and EnglishEssentials. Part Time General English (15 hours per week), Academic English, Cambridge Examination Preparation and High School Preparation also offered.
